

Sam's friends: Interesting facts

Match the interesting fact to the correct animal.

I lay my eggs in sandy soil and like to bask in the warm sun.

I am a _____.

I almost died out in the UK during the winter of 1963 because it was so cold. A group of me can be called a 'bouquet' or a 'confusion'.

I am a _____.

Dartford Warbler

Adder

Sand lizard

Butterfly

My mummy only stays with me for a few hours after I am born, after that I am completely independent. I am the only venomous snake native to Britain.

I am a _____

I taste my food with my feet and flap my wings about 5 times every second.

I am a _____