

Cut out the pictures and put them in order.
Match them with the words.
Can you tell someone the story of Sam's Sad Day?
How can we keep animals safe from fire?

The Firefighters
put the fire out.

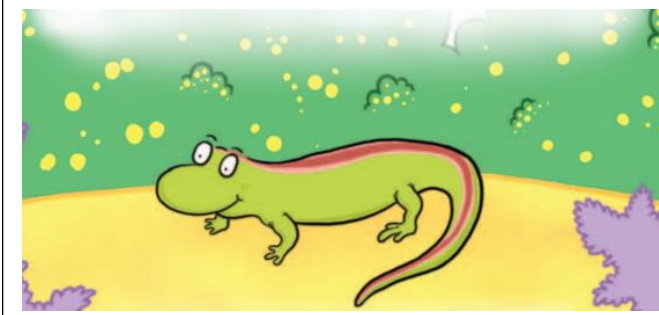

Bob the Butterfly
came to visit Sam.

The fire had destroyed their heathland home.

Andy the Adder
woke Sam up.

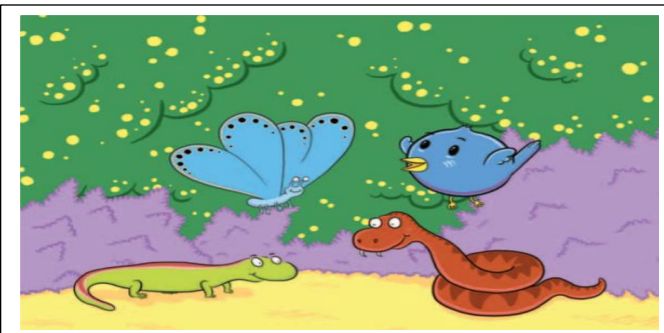

Andy had been scared by children trying to pick him.

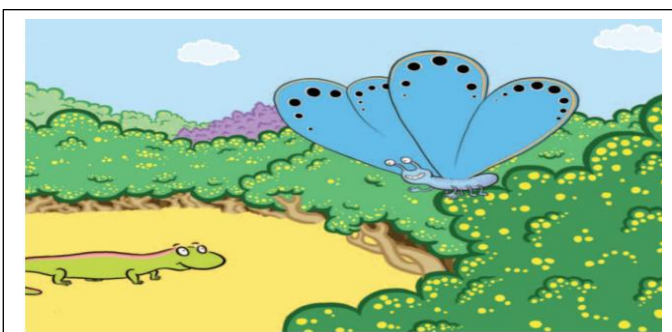

The animals found a nice new heathland to live in and hoped no one would set fire to it.

The heath was on fire!

Nancy Nightjar's eggs had hatched.

Sam the Sand Lizard lives on the heathland. He lies in the sun to warm up.
